

Personnel Calendar Report

Facilitates work allocation by identifying team members' availability for specified time period – including projects/tasks assigned; dates blocked for training, vacation and other activities; as well as % of individual's available time that each task requires.

