

Resources Calendar Report

Facilitates resource management by identifying availability for specified time period – including courses/activities assigned; dates blocked for maintenance, repair, and so forth; as well as % of resource's available time required by each activity.

